but merely telephones the airline an hour or so before departure time to determine whether he can obtain accommodations on a particular flight.

The DRUCKERS advised that [redacted] had recently arranged for an anthropologist, who is a member of the group who handled the Soviet Exposition at the National Auditorium in Mexico, D. F., to lecture before a student group at the National University in Mexico, D. F. After the lecture, the subject took this individual, whose name was not furnished, to the DRUCKER residence.

According to these informants, the subject had appeared to have acquired "quite a complex" because of his previous opposition to KHRUSHCHEV's policies of downgrading JOSEF STALIN and now the subject exhibits a great admiration for KHRUSHCHEV. Subject did mention that Mrs. KHRUSHCHEV is "just a plain sort of a woman".

With regard to ROBERT FRANCIS ALLEN (Bufile 100-15025; MC 100-628) the subject advised that ALLEN's [redacted] had not liked the place near Valle del Bravo in Mexico where ALLEN had installed a small assembly plant and that [redacted] had returned to Mexico, D. F. to reside. Subject advised that ALLEN's commercial enterprise was being backed financially by FREDERICK VANDERBILT FIELD (Bufile 100-2278; MC 100-1298).

Informants advised that the subject was greatly impressed about the "newman" treatment for elderly persons [redacted]

On 7/31/59, [redacted] (Bufile 100-422317; MC 100-1271) contacted [redacted] (Bufile 100-42174; MC 100-1534) who advised that she was planning to have the subject and his wife over the next evening. [redacted] asked if she could bring [redacted] (Bufile 100-386895; MC 100-1301) also to the meeting. [redacted] condescended and stated they were going to invite "that nice couple from out of town that you have met". The rest of the conversation between these two individuals was strictly social.

On 8/4/59, [redacted] contacted the subject's residence and spoke to [redacted]. While [redacted] was waiting to make contact the statement was made about forwarding the Latin American section of "Time" magazine and occasional clippings to [redacted] (Bufile 65-14303; MC 65-336).

When contact was made with [redacted] [redacted] asked when [redacted] (MC 100-1259) was going to leave because [redacted] had received a letter from [redacted] (MC 100-1259). [redacted] advised there had been some delay and she did not know when [redacted] was to leave. A discussion was had with regard to one ED who should know when [redacted] was to leave from Veracruz, Mexico.

[redacted] asked [redacted] if she knew [redacted] of the International Holiday Travel Agency in Mexico. [redacted] stated she did not know [redacted] and a further discussion was had with regard to the obtaining of his telephone number in order to determine when [redacted] would depart from Mexico.

On 8/3/59, the subject contacted [redacted] and asked for the telephone number of [redacted] (Bufile 100-26843; MC 100-1184). [redacted] furnished the number as 21-71-94 and subject advised that he wanted to refer a person to [redacted] because this person, whose name was not mentioned, wanted to buy a painting.

On 8/7/59, [redacted] (Bufile 100-7646; MC 100-723) contacted the subject and a discussion was had regarding one

MC 105-281

IZ STONE (ph) who was visiting in Mexico with his wife. A discussion was had with regard to what trips IZ STONE might take and night life in Mexico City and the surrounding area. Reference was made to [redacted] as being at the Hotel Prince in Mexico City.

On 9/29/59, [redacted] contacted the subject and first mentioned to him that he observed that the subject's maid now recognized his voice. [redacted] asked subject if "he had ever received the papers for that Pachuca thing". Subject stated he had not and had been "waiting for this chap [redacted]. Subject advised he had spoken to [redacted] who apparently had the necessary papers for the subject. Subject stated he might call [redacted] to determine if he was coming to Mexico City.

[redacted] mentioned [redacted] was the one who was "trying to get his money out. Is that right?" The subject stated that this was not the individual and that this individual was "the head of the company in Pachuca ---- the Chrysler company." [redacted] then asked if his name was [redacted] and the subject stated he had not said that his name was [redacted]. Subject stated that his name is [redacted] (ph). Subject advised he had talked to this man on Friday and he was to come into Mexico the day previous. [redacted] mentioned a loan and the subject stated that "the loan is all made". Subject stated he has the signature and the promissory notes that are payable monthly and he was not too concerned about this. [redacted] concluded that he considered the whole affair to be all right. It was apparent that the nature of this conversation was well-guarded.

The indices of the Mexico City Office were negative for the names [redacted] and [redacted] and [redacted]

On 10/20/59, [redacted] contacted the subject and during the conversation arrangements were made for a social engagement. Subject advised he would bring [redacted] (Bufile 100-12639; MC 100-1535) along.

On 10/25/59, [redacted] spoke with [redacted] (MC 100-1945). During the conversation [redacted] stated that
